Conners' Return...

The members of this club, (the regulars) pulled off another great evening under the guidance of Prez Les and Member Extroidinare Karen F.

This was a return engagement for our man Conner Lorre who did what he does best which is entertain the crowd with his voice, (ie voices).

The new venue also pulled their own weight by all accounts as reported by members and guests alike. Dinner was served and by most accounts everything was satisfactory in that department.

The biggest plus for an entertainer is having a nice stage, dance floor, and all the little things that come together to make the show entertaining.

The silent auction garnished some nice results and Prez Les will have all the details at our meeting.

By first accounts, all seemed good and a lot of the goods were taken home with the crowd.

Our club is small in numbers...and even smaller in how many members run the club. We need all the members, some who just support the club financially, to those who are there for every event and activity it may pursue. Thank you all!!!!

A huge thank you to all the members who work non-stop to bring these events to light and pull this "Little Club That Could" through yet another great evening in Flagler County.

Members and their guests enjoying the evening

The Silent Auction not only looked impressive, it was a highlight of the evening
