This From Treasurer Oral ...

Dear Flagler Kiwanis Board:

I want to introduce you to Emily. Her mom contacted me this week and explained about a great opportunity this young lady has. Emily is a student at Wadsworth Elementary and her teacher, Mrs. Dormady nominated her to go to this year's Junior National Young Leaders Conference (jrNYLC) in Washington, DC. She was selected because she has been recognized for her academic skills, leadership potential, teamwork abilities and strong problem solving skills.

This is a rare opportunity for Emily to strengthen those skills, and to use them as she proceeds into high school and further. The Envision program will offer workshops, group activities, and visits to historical sites. Some of these sites will include the National Museum of American History, the Lincoln Memorial and Harpers Ferry National Historic Park.

This trip is not funded by the school, so every penny must come from outside sources. While it is an exciting and educational experience of a lifetime for Emily, it is a bit expensive. I am so excited for her to have this opportunity, so I'd like to raise enough funds for her to go.

We need funds for everything from airfare, tuition, hotel and meals. This is such a high compliment, and for Emily to be recognized for her skills, independence, and high academic performance makes me so very proud. Any funds received here will go directly towards this trip to make it a worthwhile summer experience for Emily. And her GPA is a 4.0, so she won't let anyone down!

We appreciate you taking the time to read this and thank you in advance! Please look over the attached paperwork. You might even wish to make a personal donation on her GoFundMe Page: "<https://www.gofundme.com/junior-young-leaders-confernece>" (that is the way it's spelled). I would also like to propose to the board that we make a portion of the $400 budgeted for (charity) available for her.

Thank you for all you do,
Oral Groves

Matanzas High School Key Club...

The Key Club is on track for the new year with a new slate of board members and hopefully will gain more new members during the year.

They have done a great job supporting themselves under the guidance of Teacher Advisor Kathy S. and Club Advisor Maria M. they will no doubt reach new heights in the upcoming year.

No names where available for the new Board but they are ready to move the club forward and produce another winning year.
